

SUPPORT & CONNECTION

For Spouses/Partners

SUPPORT & CONNECTION

2

Watch

"Support & Connection" means being an active partner in maintaining a strong, healthy relationship despite the challenges of distance and sea life. It's about understanding the realities of maritime work, keeping communication open, and building emotional stability for both partners.

This element encourages spouses to reflect on how they support themselves and their seafarer not by doing more, but by staying connected, informed, and emotionally balanced.

3

SUPPORT & CONNECTION

Here are some examples of what this already means and could further represent:

Voyage

Healthy Communication

Emotional Understanding

Home Stability

Shared Values & Goals

Now, think about:

- How important is Support & Connection to you?

Instructions:

- Take 5 minutes to discuss: As a team, discuss how important this element is to you using the Responsibility Compass as a guide.
- Place your sticker: After discussing, take one sticker and place it on the compass to show how important you find this element:
 - Closer to the center = Less important
 - Closer to the element = More important

Explore

Use the Compass on your table

Act

Next, think about:

- What are your responsibilities when it comes to Support & Connection?
- How can the company support you with this?

Use the sticky notes
on your table

